

C O N T E N T S

(Information as of noon EST, 4 December 1969)

Far East

	Page
THE WEEK IN PERSPECTIVE	2	25X1
VIETNAM	OK 2
Opposition politicians are making the most of the incident at My Lai to embarrass the South Vietnamese Government and to further their own goals, while Buddhists, taking advantage of the atmosphere of protest, are planning demonstrations in support of their religious, minority, or political aspirations. On the war scene, there are signs the Communists will step up activity early this month, probably featuring shellings and sapper probes.		25X1
SINO-SOVIET TALKS YIELD ONLY WORDS, WORDS, WORDS
The Chinese and Soviets aim harsh words at each other as the border talks remain deadlocked.		25X1
COMMUNIST INSURGENCY IN THE MALAYAN PENINSULA
The militant arm of the Malayan Communist Party is trying to re-establish its bases in northern Malaysia.	2

Europe

THE WEEK IN PERSPECTIVE	2
SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENTS IN ARMS CONTROL	10
A number of significant advances in the field of arms control has occurred in the past two weeks. They generally are arousing expectations for further meaningful disarmament measures.

10

SECRET

SECRET

PARTY CALLS FOR SUPERVISION OF YUGOSLAV PRESS

The Communist party has called for increased supervision of Yugoslavia's information media through adoption of new laws to put an end to the "negative by-products" of the press.

12 OK

SOVIET FARM CONGRESS ADOPTS NEW CHARTER

This is the first in 35 years and remains a conservative model for the management and operation of the collective farms.

13 OK

25X1

14 OK

Middle East - Africa

THE WEEK IN PERSPECTIVE

BIG FOUR PEACE TALKS RESUME AS MIDEAST STRIFE CONTINUES

The Four Power talks on a Middle East peace settlement reopened this week after a five-month recess, but the Israelis are maintaining their adamant military and diplomatic stance.

~~15~~

16 OK

SOMALIA'S POLITICAL SCENE REMAINS MURKY

Six weeks after the coup, the Supreme Revolutionary Council is still sorting itself out, but there are signs that frictions and factions are developing among the council members.

~~17~~

GROWING OPPOSITION TO LIBYAN JUNTA

After three months in power, Libya's Revolutionary Command Council is plagued by several challenges to its position. President Qaddafi, in particular, is reported to be facing growing opposition.

~~18~~

ELECTIONS SCHEDULED IN PAKISTAN

President Yahya Khan last week outlined a timetable and laid down guidelines for a return to civilian rule, steps that should reduce the pressures that have been building up against the government.

19 OK

SECRET